

Bryngwyn Summer Fayre

Saturday 20th - Sunday 21st July 2019

10.30am to 5.30pm

The Bryngwyn Summer Fayre features the best of regional food and drink, unusual plants and trees, garden sculpture, ceramics, wood carving, high quality crafts, live demonstrations, dog show, clay pigeon shooting and lots of childrens' activities.

This is a rare occasion when our sensational large Grade II* garden will be open to the public, with three daily garden tours with our head gardener Andrea, including the poison garden, unique in Wales.

Entry: £5 per person, children under 12 free Dogs on leads welcome.
